DEPUTY CLERK

CORRECTION NOTICE

PLEASE take "NOTICE OF CORRECTION." Plaintiff-KENNEY on February 4, 2002, had filed a SEVEN-page "Brief In-Support" of his Motion also dated 2/4/02. Kenney had filed in opposition to defendants' January 28, 2002, Motion, which indicates that they attempt to seek relief from a prior Order of this Hon. Court, dated April 13, 2001.

CORRECTION

In Kenney's Supporting Brief, at ISSUES Presented. At the bottom of the(7) SEVEN-ISSUES. KENNEY had "mistakenly" used the word affirmative for suggested answers. Instead of the word affirmative, it should be replaced with the word "NEGATIVE." Meaning No for suggested answers. As a result, Kenney hereby request this critical-correction be made and/or accepted by the Court. Kenney submits this notice of correction in good faith.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: 2/6/02

RE: John Charles Kenney v. Jake Mendez, Wardens, et al.

In re: Pro Se Plaintiff's Notice Of Correction

Please find (enclosed) my "Notice Of Correction," along with certificates of service, and a single copy of a letter I had presented to defendants. All parties were served accordingly. The Correction Notice regards the Brief In Support that I had recently filed and submitted to the Court on 2/4/02. The letter to defendants, although self explanatory indicates "great" difficulties I am having in obtaining adequate scribe materials. As a result, may I PLEASE request you to process this material accordingly. Thank you in advance.

Dear, Hon. Terz: ("Assistant U.S. Attorney")
 RE: John Charles Kenney v. Jake Munder, Warden, et al.
 In re: Plaintiff's Submission Of Exhibit-Attachments
Please find (enclosed) (2) two exhibit-attachments in support of my "Supporting Brief," dated 2/4/02.
 I apologize deeply for this one-day delay. As you know, I am having "great" difficulty in obtaining adequate scribe materials, i.e., 9 1/2 x 12 1/2 legal size envelopes, carbon-paper, writing paper, and normal size ink-pens. As such, delays are to be expected, unless you and your office, or defendants decide to supply me with these needed materials. The end.

Respectfully submitted,

Kenney # 05238-041
